

SCHOOL HOLIDAYS

Kicking boredom to the kerb

FREE

Science made fun

The Whiz Bang Wham Bam Science Station is open at Mt Ommaney Shopping Centre until September 28. There's 20 interactive experiments including classic science, skill testers, videos and interactive touch pads. 3725 8888

Treasure hunt

A gang of pirates will follow clues and find the treasure during a free activity at Indooroopilly Library on Thursday, 10.30-11.30am. For children aged 5-12 years. Bookings essential. 3403 8888

BUDGET

The Frog Prince musical

More than 30 performers bring to life The Frog Prince, a Fame Theatre Production being performed at The Claver Theatre. Allhallows movies currently screening are Turbo and Planes. 3378 1566

Tycho to the Moon

Tycho the dog has dreams of going to the moon. He blasts off on an adventure in this 35-minute showing at Sir Thomas Brisbane Planetarium, Brisbane Botanic Gardens, Mt Coot-tha. Adults $14.80, children under 15 $9. Bookings recommended, Starts at 11am. Other holiday shows include Cosmic Collisions and Dynamic Earth. 3403 2578

Ochre painting

Join Aboriginal artist Melinda Serico and learn the art of ochre painting. It is from 9.30-11am on October 1 at the Balaangala Garden Place, 98 Yoorala St, The Gap. Cost $12. Make a booking. mcpeile@gmail.com

At 13, Brooke Estillore has already made it to the big screen. Picture: RENATA EINHAUS

Get ready for lights, camera and action

BROOKE Estillore is among the Brisbane youngsters getting a head start on their dreams of a film career.

The 13-year-old travelled to the Philippines to film her first movie role in The Diplomat Hotel, and returned for the premier screening and recent Cinemalaya Film Festival, at which the movie was a finalist.

Brooke, a student of the Australian School of Performing Arts, Film and Television (ASPAFTV), is using her school break to develop her talent.

She is taking part in ASPAFTV workshops that teach ages 8-17 the 'must know' fundamentals of becoming an actor. Students work with a professional cinematographer, sound recordist and actor.

Spaces remain in the Creative Shorts Film Workshop from September 30, 10am-5pm daily, at Corinda State High. Cost $450; 1300 345 688.